16 DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

16.1 Competitors participate in the regatta entirely at their own risk. See RRS 4, Decision to Race. The organizing authority will not accept any liability for material damage or personal injury or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during, or after the regatta. Competitors take part in the event at their own risk.

16.2 Competitors shall maintain their boats in a safe and seaworthy condition.

16.3 The establishment of the notice of race and the sailing instructions in no way limits or reduces the complete and unlimited responsibilities of competitors being solely and entirely responsible for the management of their boats before, during and after the championship.

16.4 A competitor shall be of good health and a competent sailor capable of racing in open water in all conditions, including strong winds.

16.5 At-fault occurrences to other boats are the responsibility of the competitor. Competitors are not covered by any liability insurance provided by the organizing authority and should provide their own coverage for personal goods and liability protection. The organizing authority recommends that competitors consult their own insurance carriers to ensure they are covered at this event and regarding additional personal liability insurance coverage.

16.6 A competitor is advised to have personal accident and health insurance that covers him while attending the event and while racing.

16.7 To the fullest extent permitted by law, each competitor agrees to indemnify the Host, owners, affiliates, officers, employees, agents, members, volunteers, committee persons and race officials, acting in their official capacities, harmless from any claim arising from a competitor's acts or omissions.

17 INSURANCE

Each participating boat shall be insured with valid third-party liability insurance with a minimum cover of US$10.000 (ten thousand American dollars) per incident or the equivalent.

Local sailors need local insurance, such as Isapre or Fonasa.
